OUR RISING STARS UPDATE

(Left to Right:
Dawn Davis,
April Dent,
Ashley Arrington)

Our Rising Stars After School participants are excited about their partnership with the University of Alabama at Birmingham School of Education. More than twenty UAB students provided homework assistance, individualized tutoring and enrichment activities to our Rising Stars and contributed 307 volunteer hours. Friendships were forged as UAB students assisted our Rising Stars. We are looking forward to expanding our collaboration with UAB to meet the needs of our students. Our partnership has already proven fruitful and we are looking ahead to the New Year so that together, we can better serve the children we have been entrusted with.

Merry Christmas
